Melbourne International Vehicle Crime Conference

Melbourne Convention Centre 13-14 June 2007

Disrupting Criminal Networks, Transnational Car Crime Trends
Understanding the 'New' Vehicle Crime,
Young People and Vehicle Theft, Innovations and Strategies in Policing,
Insurance and Car Crime, Emerging Vehicle Crime

Victoria Police, like many of its counterparts across Australia, has had significant success in the reduction of motor vehicle-related crime. The Melbourne International Motor Vehicle Crime Conference will build on these successes and set the scene for developing responses to the challenges of 21st century crime. Attendance at this event provides excellent opportunities for those with professional interests in reducing vehicle crime and those in the fields of policing, community safety, crime prevention, vehicle manufacture and insurance, to share knowledge and experiences with their national and international counterparts.

Welcome Reception Fox Classic Car Collection Museum

Tuesday 12 June 2007, 1930-2130

This function provides a rare opportunity to view the $15 million Fox classic car collection, which includes classic marques such as the Bentley, Ferrari, Jaguar, Porsche, Mercedes Benz and Rolls Royce. With up to 80 vehicles exhibited at any one time, the design, production details, engine features and specifications are of interest to all car enthusiasts.

Tickets for this event are not included in your conference registration. Tickets may be purchased via the registration form at a cost of $20 per person.

Please note that this event is being held on Level 2 of the museum and there is no lift access. Access to Level 2 is via the stairs only. If you have any questions or concerns, please email jacqui@wsm.com.au

This event has been sponsored, however, your ticket purchase will contribute to a donation to Very Special Kids, a charity that supports families throughout their experience of caring for children with life-threatening illnesses, from diagnosis through to recovery or bereavement. Go to www.vsk.org.au for more information.

Conference Dinner Melbourne Cricket Ground

Wednesday 13 June 2007, 1930-2300,
Members' Dining Room

Lord's, Wembley, Old Trafford, Eden Gardens and Yankee Stadium are considered among the greatest sporting arenas in the world, but for history, pure drama and emotion, it's hard to look past the Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG) as one of the world's great sporting venues.

The conference dinner will be held at this iconic Melbourne venue, where guests will enjoy light entertainment from police reporter John Silvester from The Age newspaper, music by Victoria Police band Code One, and spectacular views of the city skyline and the hallowed turf of the MCG arena.

Transportation will be provided from the conference venue to the Melbourne Cricket Ground. Return transfers will also be provided at the conclusion of the event to the conference hotels.

Tickets for this event are not included in your conference registration. Tickets may be purchased via the registration form at a cost of $120 per person.

Registration and Accommodation

Registration $390 per person, inclusive of GST.

Registration inclusions:

- Entry to conference sessions
- Access to car display and trade exhibition
- Conference program
- Coffee on arrival, morning/afternoon teas and lunches

How to register

Application for registration can be made online at or via the registration form enclosed.

Advance registration for all participants is essential. Registrations can only be accepted on receipt of a completed registration form (online or hard copy).

Acknowledgment of registration details will be sent soon after receipt of your registration form. On receipt of your confirmation letter, please check all items carefully. Any errors or alterations need to be made in writing to the conference managers as soon as possible.

Registration cancellations

Conditions

Change of booking

Any change to hotel/accommodation reservations must be given in writing to the conference managers and not directly to the hotel.

How to book your accommodation

Please indicate on the registration form your accommodation requirements. As there is limited space available at each hotel, it is important that you book early. Accommodation will be allocated strictly in order of receipt of registration form.

Payment of one night's accommodation is required to confirm your booking. Accommodation accounts to be settled by the delegate on site directly with the venue.

Deadlines

The hotels impose strict cut-off dates of 30 days prior to arrival; therefore any bookings made after Monday 14 May 2007 will be on request basis only.

For cancellations of reservations within 30 days of arrival, a fee of the first night's accommodation will apply. Any amendments to your original accommodation booking must be forwarded in writing to the conference managers.

Early arrival or late departure

Please note that the check-in time for the accommodation venues is from 1400. Please indicate to or notify the conference managers in writing if you will be arriving early, as it may require you to pre-register the night before to guarantee immediate access to your accommodation room.

Please also indicate to or notify the conference managers in writing if you will arrive at your accommodation after 1800, as failure to do so may mean your room will be released.

Special requirements

If you have any special requirements (eg, dietary or for a disability), please indicate your requirements on your registration form so arrangements can be made on your behalf to ensure your needs are met.
